

April 9, 1865

near Appomattox, with the Federals on 3 sides of him, Lee knew it was useless to go further.

He met General Grant and agreed to a surrender.

Many of his officers were for guerrilla warfare, but he said
no. Start over. Be good citizens.
His horse throughout the war was traveller. He took traveller with him

when he became Pres. of Washington College in Lexington, Va.

1865

USS United States is broken up at the Navy Yard in Norfolk and her timbers sold to private buyers.

1865

U.S. Grant was made a full general after the war. He was the 1st man to hold this rank in the U.S. Army.

April 15, 1865

Pres. Abe Lincoln died. He had been shot on the evening of Apr. 14, 1865 in Ford's Theatre in Washington, D.C. by a half-crazed Actor.

1865

After the war, Clara Barton started an organization to search for missing men.

Through her efforts, more than 22,000 missing soldiers were accounted for.